

Winners of RRAS Science Fair Award

Each year, RRAS awards $50 to the best Humboldt County Science Fair project related to birds or their habitat.

Congratulations to past award winners!

2012: “How Sweet It Is” by Erin Lamphear, Grade 5, St Mary's School”

2011: “Effects of Native Dune Flora on Mammalian Diversity” by Triston Pigg & Owen Reiss, Grade 7, Jacoby Creek School

2010: “Tracks, Tracks, Tracks” by Cole Davis, Grade 7, McKinleyville Middle School

2009: “Wave Energy” by Rachael Green, Grade 7, McKinleyville Middle School

2008: “Feathered Friend or Foe” by Jace Jackson, Grade 7, McKinleyville Middle School

2007: “Hummingbirds Aren’t Colorblind, You Know!” by William Whitehead, Grade 6, McKinleyville Middle School

2006: “Junk Mail” by Grady Sheehy, Grade 6, McKinleyville Middle School

2005: “Drink the Dew: Can Fog Be Harvested?” by Steven Dewey, Grade 7, Pacific Union School

2004: “Wildfires: Give Me a Break” by Joshua Compton, Grade 7, Pacific Union School

2003: “Which Species of Wild Backyard Birds Is More Aggressive? Submissive?” by Chelsea Stewart-Fusek, Grade 7, Fieldbrook Elementary School

